

Narragansett Special Education Parent Advisory Committee

This Committee is open to parents of students receiving Special Education Services, as well as teachers, administrators and other concerned individuals.

In compliance with State and Federal regulations, the majority of the committee members are parents. The committee meets throughout the academic school year to share information on Special Education issues and concerns. Occasionally there are guest speakers and workshops.

If your child had been referred to Special Education services or you anticipate the need for future services, the Parent Advisory Committee is available to offer you support and information.

If you are the parent of a child currently receiving Special Education Services in Narragansett, we would like to hear from you. Your support and participation is needed.

The Functions and Responsibilities of the Special Education Parent Advisory Committee

- Act as an advocate for all special needs children.
- Promote effective communications between parents and administrators.
- Advise parents of their rights and responsibilities with regards to their children's special needs.
- Assist the Narragansett School Department concerning local compliance with State and Federal regulations.
- Assist the Narragansett School Department regarding applications for State and Federal funding.
